Curriculum sheet notes

Note 1.	Each semester, students are encouraged to develop/review a Academic Plan (AP) in consultation with their Major Professor to plan their coursework. If a student has not yet been assigned a Major Professor, they should discuss their course plans for the next semester with the Director of Graduate
Note 2.	Students may encounter scheduling conflicts when registering for courses, such as overlapping class times or conflicts with teaching assistant (TA) assignments. In these cases, you are encouraged to adjust the sequence of your courses to create the most effective schedule. Please discuss any changes with your Major Professor. If you have not yet been assigned a Major Professor, consult with the DoGE.
Note 3.	Course numbers and titles may change due to catalog updates.
Note 4.	ARTID 5700 courses (5700, 5710, 5730, 5740, 5750X, and 6700) are elective offerings within the program. The courses available may vary each semester depending on faculty teaching assignments. New courses—such as ARTID 5750, ARTID 5760, ARTID 5770, and others—may be added by the
Note 5.	DSNS 5460: Interdisciplinary Design Studio offers different topics each Spring semester. Please refer to College of Design announcements to identify a studio that aligns with your Academic Plan (AP), and consult with your Major Professor about your selection. If the studio you choose is only 4 credits, you must speak with the studio instructor about how to fulfill the 6-credit requirement. Students may use ARTID 5900: Special Topics to earn the additional 2 credits.
Note 6.	Students must follow the policies outlined in the Graduate College Handbook and Interior Design Program Handbook. For more information about courses, credits, and grading, please refer to Chapter 5 – Courses, Credits, and Grading: https://www.grad-college.iastate.edu/handbook/chapter5-coursework
Note 7.	First Professional M.A. students who are required to complete undergraduate interior design studios (ARTID 2650, 2670, 3670, and 4650) should enroll, when possible, in sections taught by graduate faculty members.
Note 8.	If you encounter any technical difficulties with course registration via Workday, please contact Graduate Student Support (currently Anne Grevstad-Nordbrock).
Note 9.	If you have any questions about this curriculum sheet, please contact the Director of Graduate Education (DoGE) for Interior Design.
